“Ho! Everyone who thirsts, Come to the waters;
And you who have no money, Come, buy and eat.”¹

That’s what the Bible says. What does “Ho” mean? It’s an attention grabber. What is it that demands your attention? This wonderful invitation from the Lord God of heaven! Are you thirsty for the truth? Do you see how destitute and barren your sin has made you before a pure and holy God? Do you want your soul cleansed, refreshed, satisfied, and nourished by the Lord Jesus Christ? This is what is meant by the phrase “life and peace.”² Because it’s priceless, heaven is for those who have no resources, no leverage, and who own up to their spiritual bankruptcy before almighty God. You cannot bargain with God, because “...the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”³ If you worked for it, then it’d no longer be a gift! Yes, salvation is given only to the undeserving, the needy sinner, and the spiritual beggar. But you can’t love your sin and love Jesus at the same time. So in that sense, you must part with everything if you are to obtain salvation. Give up your self-reliance and trust only in Jesus. Give up your sins and trade them for God’s forgiveness.
